

Geography Whole School Long Term Plan

	Autumn 1	Spring	Summer
Ducklings	- Understand that the world is made up of different continents and begin to name some. Understand that oceans exist between continents and begin to name some. - Know that we live in England, UK, Europe. - Notice what is in our town. Talk about what it is like where we live and identify simple similarities and differences in geographical photographs. Describe our local area using geographical language. - Observe and describe a range of places around the world seen in photographs. - Differentiate between types of weather. - Explore a range of non-fiction books about places around the world. - Use globes, maps and compasses in their role play. Talk about what they notice using geographical vocabulary. - Draw simple fictional maps and identify geographical features within their own emergent map making. - Use locational and positional language in their role-play. - Name the seasons in order.
Robins	Toys through Time	Wild About Africa Use 4 compass points Explore the climate, animals and major geographical features of Africa.	Oh, I Do Like to Be Beside the Seaside! Use maps to locate the UK and its seas. Investigate and compare British and international beaches.
Chaffinch	Where My Wellies Take Me Use maps to locate the UK and the seven continents. Use fieldwork skills to explore the local environment.	Icy Worlds Use maps to locate the Arctic Circle and countries found there. Explore the Arctic climate Research Arctic animals.	London's Burning! Locate the UK and London on maps. Explore London Landmarks and other geographical features.
Dove	South East Adventure - Sussex and its neighbours Locate the UK and Sussex on maps. Explore topography of Sussex Investigate Sussex land use and agriculture Explore coastal erosion in Sussex.	Into the Jungle! Locate the equator, the tropics of Capricorn and Cancer and the world's rainforests on maps. Explore the climate of rainforests Research flora, fauna and indigenous tribes of the rainforest.	We Will Rock You Locate and explore some key stone age sites using digital maps. Explain how seasonal changes in the environment affected the daily lives of Stone Age people. Identify environmental features which influenced where they settled.

Geography Whole School Long Term Plan

Seagulls	Meanwhile, Over in Egypt... Locate Egypt and the River Nile on maps. Explore the physical and human geography of the Nile Delta. Research the uses of the River Nile and how it has changed over the years.	Volcanoes Use maps to locate volcanoes around the world. Understand tectonic plates and how volcanoes are formed.	Romans on a Rampage! Locate Europe and Italy on maps. Explore the physical geography of Italy. Investigate famous cities and landmarks.
Kingfishers	Rivers Identify the main parts of a river system. Compare rivers in the UK with those around the world. Explore how Viking settlements were influenced by rivers.	Space	Coasts Find out about the physical features of coasts and process of erosion. Research coastal management.
Heron	We'll meet again / A Taste of Change Use maps to explore the geography of WW2	On the Edge Identify and locate major mountain ranges and earthquake zones around the world using maps. Describe how different mountains are formed. Investigate biomes around the world.	Groovy Greeks Locate Greece on maps, and identify the geographical features. Investigate the role of the sea in trade and communication. Analyse resource availability and its consequences.