

Reading

Writing

Writing to Entertain

- Writing to the Snow Dragon about how we melted the ice and 'freed' items in our classroom
- Snow and Ice poetry - 'In my box'
- Narrative writing – The boy who brought the snow

Writing to Inform –

- Information pages about arctic animals to make a non-fiction class book
- Inventing our own arctic animals and writing about their features and habitats

Stunning Start
Snow Dragon visit – a frozen classroom!
Marvellous Middle
Table top Glaciers
Fabulous Finish
A 'thank you' treat from Jack Frost!

Icy Worlds
Year 2
Spring Term

Art – Mono Printing

To understand what mono printing is and to make my own mono print

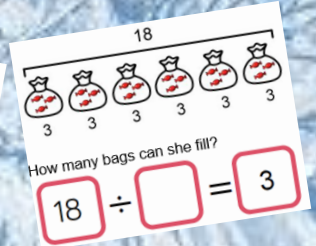

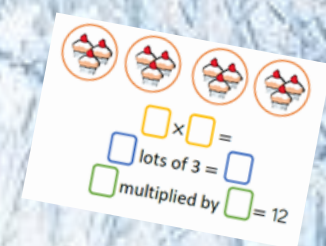

Design and Technology

Design purposeful, functional, appealing hand puppets for themselves and other users based on design criteria

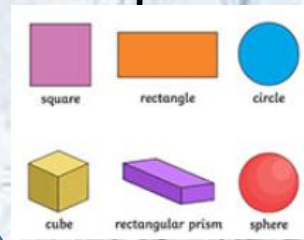

Maths

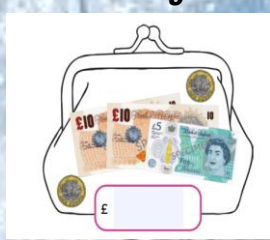

Multiplication and Division

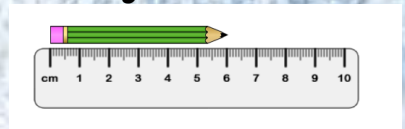

Shape

Money

Length and height

Geography

Exploring the Arctic Circle using a map and investigating the countries within the circle.
Discovering the Arctic climate
Identifying the physical features found in the Arctic.
Finding out which animals live in the Arctic
Exploring different Arctic cities and the countries they are found in.

RSHE – Digital media

